**THIS VARIES BY STATE.]*

Medicaid is health insurance that you get from the government. It's great coverage for people who may have low income or certain health conditions.

On-screen text: [INCOME; HOUSEHOLD SIZE; CITIZENSHIP STATUS]

Eligibility can vary by income, household size and citizenship status.

*On-screen text: [WHAT'S COVERED?**
**SERVICES VARY BY PLAN.]*

So, that's who may be covered. Now let's talk about what may be covered for low income individuals, families and children.

On-screen text: [PRIMARY CARE PROVIDER (PCP)]

Most Medicaid plans let you pick your own in-network primary care provider, or PCP. Your PCP is the main health care professional that takes care of you.

BASED ON YOUR GENDER, AGE AND HEALTH]

Medicaid plans offer a lot to help you stay healthy. Your plan may offer preventive care services as well as coverage for medications —at no cost to you.

On-screen text: [DENTAL CARE; PROGRAMS TO SUPPORT GOOD HEALTH; IMMUNIZATIONS FOR CHILDREN; EYE CARE; EXTRA SUPPORT DURING PREGNANCY]

Depending on your plan, your Medicaid coverage may also include extra care and services.

On-screen text: [HOW CAN I GET STARTED?]

If you think you might be eligible for Medicaid and you'd like to get started, here's what you can do:

*On-screen text: [STAY COVERED
REDETERMINATION OR RECERTIFICATION
RE-ENROLL]*

Keep in mind that once you join, you'll need to re-enroll every year. Some plans call this process Redetermination or Recertification, which are just big words for "re-enroll."

So, it's a good idea to be on the lookout for instructions on what you need to do to keep your coverage in place. Your health plan may also contact you when it's time to renew your coverage.

On-screen text: [PICK A HEALTH PLAN]

One last thing. When you sign up for Medicaid, you might be asked to choose a health plan.
